THE USE OF TELEPHONES FOR FIRE ALARM SERVICE.

In the past ten years, the telephone has created new conditions, and these call for new provisions and regulations.

It must be conceded that if the telephone is to be used for transmitting fire calls, some accurate method must be employed. In trying to telephone an alarm, numerous instances can be cited (the Kuretti fire on November 25th last is a good example) where it was impossible to learn the location of the fire on account of the excited condition of the person trying to report it.

The use of a telephone circuit makes possible the individual fire alarm box in every home, store or factory, which in the event of a fire will be the means of saving much property by securing prompt assistance, and the Denio System, as applied to the telephone circuits fully meets all the provisions and regulations these new conditions have created.—advertisement.

Damages in the sum of $650 were granted Samuel Navalo by a jury in Judge Cooper's court yesterday for injuries received when he was run over by a motor car belonging to the von Hamm-Young Company. Though no bones were broken, the plaintiff, an aged man, showed that he had been unable to earn a livelihood for many weeks as a result of the accident. E. J. Peters, counsel for the defendant, filed notice of a motion for a new trial.

Mrs. Christina Brown, of Hilo, last week swore to a complaint against C.
C. Kennedy, the Big Island magnate, charging him with heedless driving. It is alleged that the automobile driven by Mr. Kennedy, knocked down the complainant last Friday in one of the big gates on the railroad wharf. The accident occurred just before the leaving of the Mauna Kea. Mrs. Brown's arm and leg were injured. The case was to have been heard last Saturday, but has been continued.

Registration at the Library of Hawaii was open today from ten o'clock four to six this afternoon. Beginning Thursday morning the library will be open from nine in the morning to nine o'clock at night for circulation of books. Those who have registered prior to Thursday morning will be given cards and be permitted to draw books. Those who have not registered at that time, will have an opportunity to do so, and cards will be issued as soon as possible afterward.

A scheme is on foot by the Philippine government to import a large number of Australian cattle and horses for breeding and ranging in the Bukidnon territory, Mindanao, said to be an ideal grazing country. An expedition of officials lately accompanied Sir Francis Connor, ex-member of the Australian parliament, on a tour of the territory. A stop was to be made at Hilo to inspect the sugar and agricultural experiment station at La Car-lota, Occidental Negros.

When the scarcity of rice in the Philippines a few months ago threatened the people with hunger, the government played the role of Joseph in Egypt by collecting and distributing a supply of the cereal. Some of it was given away. The operations cost about 300,000 pesos. Later, with a bumper new crop coming in, the government disposed of the residue of its stores of rice to two Chinese merchants for approximately 500,000 pesos. In the mean time, something like one million pesos was saved to the poor people through the action of the government in preventing excessive or monopoly prices. Had the sales of the old crop stores been delayed much longer, the loss to the government would have been heavy.

FILIPINOS ARRESTED ON CHARGES BY GIRLS HILLO, Feb. 4.—Four Filipinos have been placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Martin on complaint by Mrs.
Renfrew, principal of the Pepeekeo school, who reported that several of her Portuguese girl pupils were being continually frightened by the little brown men. The men were arrested with the assistance of the girls, who knew them by name and picked them out.

The girls said the men persistently accosted them when they were on the road to school, urging them to go into the canefields with the men. In some instances they even tried to force the girls to go with them, but released the children when they screamed. The Filipinos say they were only playing, but two of them have been held and will be tried before Judge Wise today on a charge of assault and battery.

MEN AND RELIGION MOVEMENT GOES FORWARD

The executive committee of the Local Men and Religion Forward Movement met Monday evening to hear the final report, arranged for the distribution of the various duties involved in carrying out the recommendation left by Fred B. Smith and Raymond Robins, and also to consider the report of the treasurer of the local campaign.
Following the discussion of the business of the evening, the committee was dissolved as an organization.

Some of the plans suggested by the team during its stay in this city were urged upon the local churches at the meeting last evening, while others were referred to the Inter-Church Federation and the Young Men's Association. The treasurer's report which was read by John Gail, and supplemented by John Waterhouse, chairman of the finance committee of the local campaign, showed that while all the bills were not yet in, the total expenses of the Honolulu campaign will be about $1800, including the city's share of the traveling expenses of the team, and its entertainment while in Honolulu. The salaries of the members of the team, as well as the members of the quartet, are paid by the committee in New York City.

Of this sum $1500 has been received to date, coming from the portions assigned to each of the English-speaking churches, and from other collections.
There remains $300 to be received, and it is thought that this amount will be gotten within a short time.
The local Men and Religion movement has officially been disbanded, as it is not the desire of the movement to create any new organizations but rather to organize the old ones. The churches, the Inter-Church Federation and the various other social and religious organizations of the city have been greatly stirred by the campaign and will take up the recommendations made by the team and carry them through to completion.
